

History

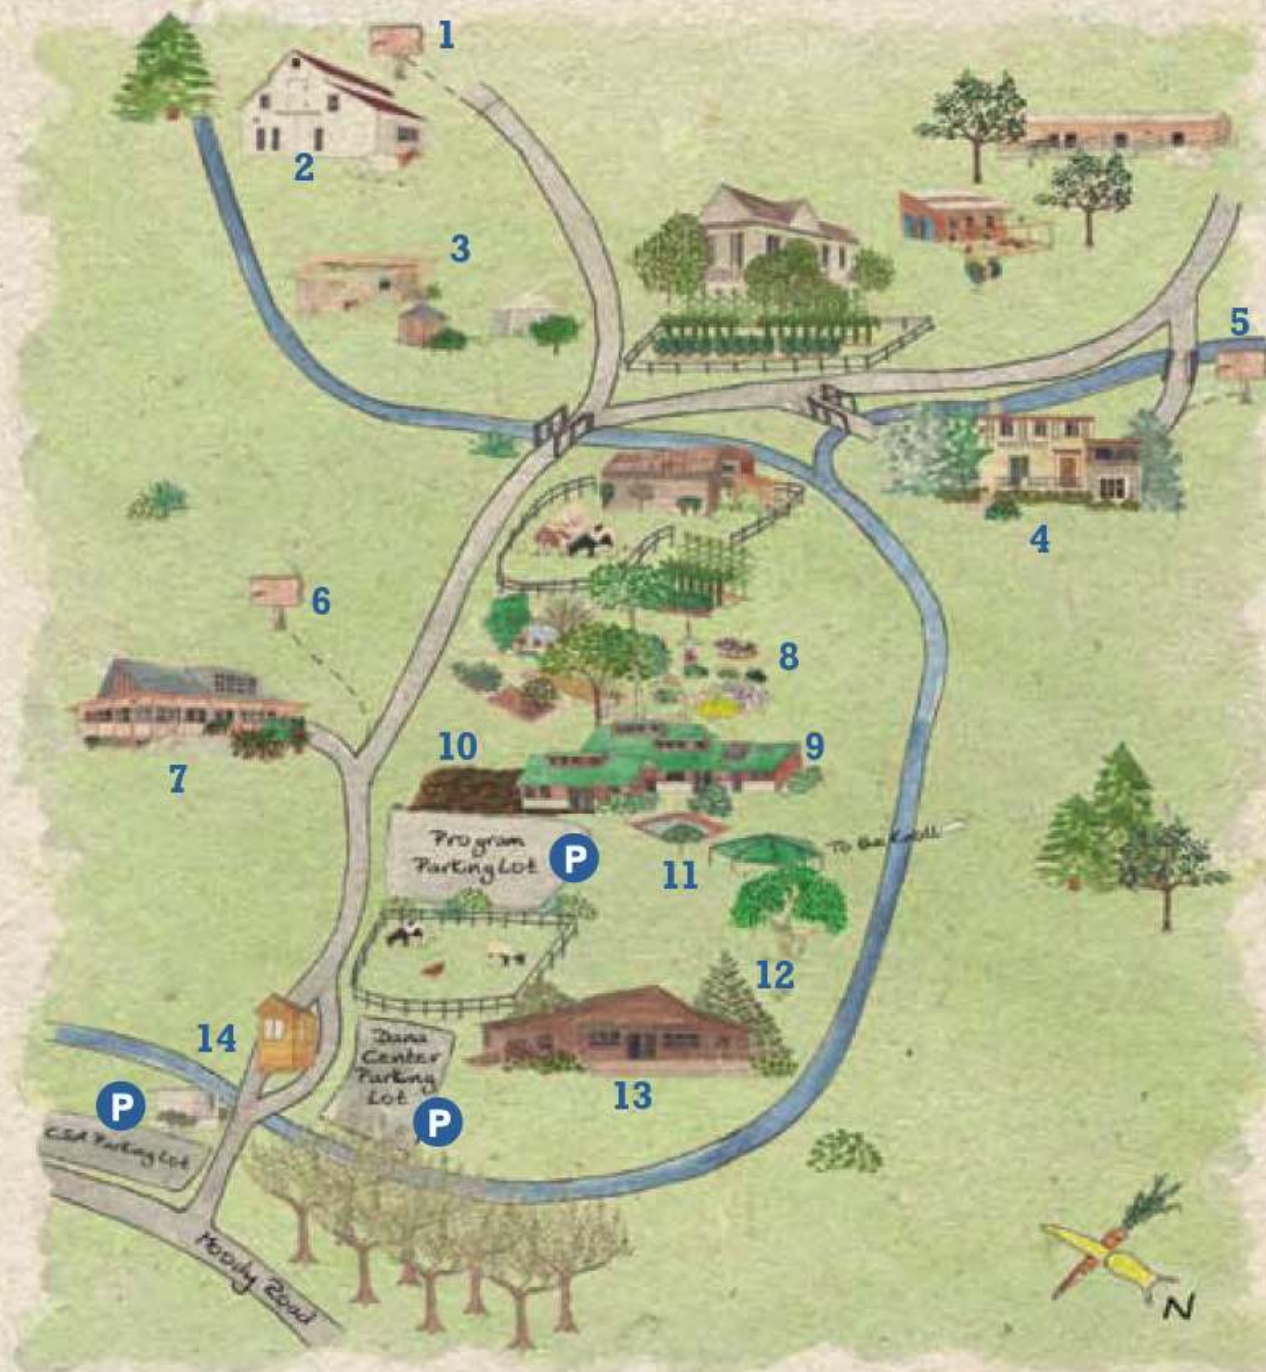

Hidden Villa was founded by Frank and Josephine Duveneck, who purchased the land in 1924 and offered it as a gathering place for discussion, reflection, and incubation of social reform. Over the following decades, the Duvenecks established the first Hostel on the Pacific Coast (1937), the first multiracial summer camp (1945), and an Environmental Education Program (1970). The Trust for Hidden Villa was established as a nonprofit in 1960.

Hidden Villa is open Tuesday-Sunday from 9:00 am to dusk. Seasonal Passes (which are good all year, except when the property is closed for Summer Camp) are available for $60, or Day Passes are available for $5.

Etiquette

Hidden Villa is a smoke-free, "pack-out" facility and does not provide public trash receptacles. Please help to ensure an enjoyable visit for all of our guests by taking out what you bring in, and by following these simple guidelines and all posted signs:

- Do not pick flowers, fruits, or vegetables. These items are grown for our programs and have intended uses.
- Leave plants and shrubs as they are.
- Dogs are welcome and must be attended and on a leash at all times. They are not allowed on our trails, in the wilderness, or in areas with free-ranging chickens.
- Our farm animals are on special diets and are fed at regular times; Please do not feed them.
- For the safety of our animals and for our guests, please do not climb on fences or enter animal pens without a guide.
- There are several private residences on site—these are not public spaces and should be respected.
